

POSTDOCTORAL POSITION IN BIOINFORMATICS

The Metabolomics Innovation Centre

We are currently recruiting a postdoctoral scientist in metabolomic bioinformatics at the Metabolomics Innovation Centre (TMIC). TMIC is located in the Centennial Centre for Disciplinary Science (CCIS) on the North Campus of the University of Alberta, in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. Available resources include a wide array of software, servers, and databases. The post is funded by Genome Canada and is available immediately.

Criteria include:

- PhD degree (or PhD thesis in active preparation) in bioinformatics
- Experience in a programming languages including Ruby, Ruby on Rails, Python, Java, Java Script
- Computational skills in bioinformatic analysis and statistics
- Experience mentoring/training graduate students, research assistants and technicians
- Excellent communication skills and ability to work within a collaborative, interdisciplinary team.
- Track-record of productivity in bioinformatics demonstrating experience in writing scientific manuscripts
- Knowledge of analytical chemistry an asset

To Apply:

Forward your CV and contact information for three references to:

Dana Chamot
wishartadmin@ualberta.ca

Closing date:

Position open until filled.

We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only those individuals selected for an interview will be contacted.

The University of Alberta offers appointments on the basis of merit. We are committed to the principle of equity in employment. We welcome diversity and encourage applications from all qualified women and men, including persons with disabilities, members of visible minorities and Aboriginal persons.